

SYNOPSIS ANGLAIS

Following accusations and arrests, the investigating judge establishes the facts. He hears the accused behind closed doors and decides on their fate. He is on the front line, he is confronted with a raw social reality. He often takes charge of small affairs which tell us about the qualities and the flaws of human nature.

In the course of their narratives, the accused talk about themselves : dramas, accidents, violence, conflicts, misunderstandings, patiently elaborated plans or rough and mindless impulses, the world and its diversity come out in the office of the investigating judge. Sometimes absurd, derisory or tragic, a human comedy takes place before our very eyes.
